

Standards for community life

Goshen College maintains standards for behavior which make living in the campus community easier and more rewarding. Students from different backgrounds may not hold the same values, but on campus all Goshen College students agree not to drink, have premarital sex, smoke or take illegal drugs. Fireworks and firearms are also prohibited. All new students are expected to live in accordance with the “Standards for guiding our life together,” on pages 2-4.

Notice about Goshen College campus safety and security information

This annual information sheet provides information of security services, policies and annual crime statistics and is available upon request to the admissions department.

Christian faith at Goshen College

Goshen is a Christian college that emphasizes the development of a strong and mature Christian faith and a commitment to the church. You will encounter the Christian faith as it is held and lived by our faculty and the majority of Goshen students.

Goshen College nondiscriminatory policy

Goshen College is in compliance with all applicable federal regulations pertaining to nondiscrimination on the basis of handicap, sex, race, color, national or ethnic origin in its recruitment, admissions, educational, athletic, financial aid, and employment policies and programs.

questionnaire:

Goshen College’s “Standards for guiding our life together” (pages 2-4) are based on Christian understandings of how our beliefs shape our study, work, relationships and life in this community of faith and learning. Many of these standards will reflect personally held values. In addition to this foundation, also central to our Christian understanding is a call to be peacemakers, and as peacemakers we value dialogue – sharing experiences, perceptions and viewpoints – and respecting differences.

1. Did you read the “Standards” included in this application, pages 2-4? (Check one.) Yes No
2. What is your response to these standards? (Check the statement that matches best.)
 - The standards reflect my values, and I will actively support them.
